

The Rebounders Story

Rebounders Canada was founded in 1991 by the late adult survivor Andrew Sprawson. Andrew's wife Jill, herself an adult survivor of childhood cancer, is now executive director of the organization. Rebounders is 100% volunteer-run. Every dollar you donate goes to supporting activities and projects for adult survivors. Our motto is "thriving, not just surviving".

REBOUNDERS CANADA
THRIVING, NOT JUST SURVIVING

Adult Survivors of Childhood Cancer

www.rebounders.ca

Rebounders Canada is a registered Canadian charity that offers support and social opportunities to adults living with the long-term effects of childhood cancer.

Here are some of our objectives:

- Offer opportunities for survivors to connect with other survivors and enjoy fun social events.
- Find new survivors to become members of Rebounders.
- Raise funds for survivor activities across Canada.

Are YOU a Rebounder or do you know one?

More than 82% of children diagnosed with cancer are cured and become survivors. This is an amazing accomplishment!

BUT survival itself is not enough. More than half of all adult survivors of childhood cancer will face a lifetime of complications that are a direct result of the disease or the treatment they received.

Many survivors face physical and emotional challenges that they must learn to overcome.

IS THIS YOU?
YOU ARE NOT ALONE!

Rebounders can help you connect with other survivors like you!

How does Rebounders help survivors connect?

We offer regular SOCIAL EVENTS in the Greater Toronto and Ottawa areas. Events are sponsored by Rebounders and are no or low cost to attend. Assistance with travel expenses for out of town survivors may be available.

→ We print a MEMBER DIRECTORY to help you find other survivors (listing is optional).

→ We STAY IN TOUCH with you through newsletters and other communications.

→ We have a FACEBOOK page. Search Facebook for "Rebounders Canada". You can also find info at our WEBSITE:
